This information is used for the following purposes:

For our customers:

Normal trading purposes

To contact you regarding orders placed

To discuss any aspects of your credit account.

To send invoices for goods supplied

For our suppliers:

Normal trading purposes including the placing of orders for goods and payment of invoices.

We will not contact you with unsolicited marketing materials.

All information is securely kept, whether this is in paper or digital form. Our computers are protected by anti-virus software

You have a right to:

1. Know how we use your Company or Individual data.
2. Request access to data held by us regarding your Company or your personal details.
3. Request that any data held be corrected or rectified.
4. Request that your data is erased (except that needed for HMCE compliance)
5. Not be subject to automatic decision making and profiling. (Any decisions made by Swedex (UK) Ltd require human intervention and you have a right to ask where we obtain information to make such decisions)
